CALCULATION OF FILING FEE

Transaction valuation*	Amount of filing fee
$681,441,931.40	$78,979.12

* Estimated solely for purposes of calculating the filing fee. This calculation is based on the offer to purchase all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Shares”), of Exar Corporation, at a purchase price of $13.00 per Share, without interest thereon, net to the seller in cash and subject to reduction for any applicable U.S. federal withholding, back-up withholding or other applicable tax withholdings. The underlying value of the transaction was calculated based on the sum of: 51,476,565 issued and outstanding Shares, multiplied by $13.00 per share; (ii) 2,053,146 Shares underlying vested stock options (including stock options that are expected to become vested in connection with the transaction) with an exercise price that is less than $13.00 per Share, multiplied by $4.90 per Share (which is the difference between $13.00 and $8.10, the weighted average exercise price of such options that have an exercise price that is less than $13.00 per Share); and (iii) 168,167 Shares subject to restricted stock units that are expected to become vested in connection with the transaction, multiplied by $13.00 per Share, which is the offer price per Share.

** The filing fee, calculated in accordance with Rule 0-11 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Fee Rate Advisory #1 for fiscal year 2017, issued August 31, 2016, is calculated by multiplying the transaction valuation by 0.00011590.

Check the box if any part of the fee is offset as provided by Rule 0-11(a)(2) and identify the filing with which the offsetting fee was previously paid. Identify the previous filing by registration statement number, or the Form or Schedule and the date of its filing.

This Amendment No. 1 amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO (the “Initial Schedule TO”), filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission on April 13, 2017, related to the tender offer by Eagle Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Purchaser”) and a wholly-owned subsidiary of MaxLinear, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Parent” or “MaxLinear”), for all of the outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Shares”) of Exar Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the “Company” or “Exar”), at a price of $13.00 per Share, without interest thereon, net to the seller in cash, and subject to reduction for any applicable U.S. federal withholding, back-up withholding or other applicable tax withholdings, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the offer to purchase dated April 13, 2017 (the “Offer to Purchase”), filed as Exhibit (a)(1)(A) to the Initial Schedule TO, and in the related letter of transmittal (the “Letter of Transmittal”), filed as Exhibit (a)(1)(B) to the Initial Schedule TO, which, together with any other related materials, as each may be amended or supplemented from time to time, collectively constitute the “Offer.”

ITEM 11. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

Section 16—“Certain Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals” of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following paragraph immediately after the last paragraph of the subsection titled “Antitrust Compliance”:

On April 19, 2017, MaxLinear received notice from the FTC granting early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act in connection with MaxLinear’s proposed acquisition of Exar. Termination of the waiting period satisfies one of the conditions required to consummate the Offer. The Offer remains subject to other customary conditions set forth in Section 15—“Certain Conditions to the Offer” of this Offer to Purchase.

Section 16—“Certain Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals” of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following subsection at the end of the section:

Legal Proceedings. On April 18, 2017, The Vladimir Gusinsky Revocable Trust, which alleges that it owns 110 Shares of Exar, filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California against Exar, its board of directors, MaxLinear and Purchaser, captioned The Vladimir Gusinsky Rev. Trust v. Exar Corp. et al., No. C-17-2150-SI (N.D. Cal.). The complaint alleges that the Merger Agreement provides inadequate consideration to Exar’s stockholders, contains deal protection provisions that will unduly deter competing offers for Exar and will provide substantial monetary benefits to certain of Exar’s directors and officers. The complaint also alleges that the Schedule 14D-9 omits material information about the financial projections and analyses on which Cowen based its fairness opinion, about potential conflicts of interest of Exar’s officers and directors, and about the process that led to the Merger Agreement. Based on these allegations, the complaint asserts putative class claims under section 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against all defendants (Count I), under section 14(d) of the Exchange Act and SEC Rule 14d-9 against all defendants (Count II), and under section 20(a) of the Act against the individual defendants and MaxLinear (Count III). The complaint seeks certification of a class; an injunction barring the merger or, if defendants enter into the merger, an order rescinding it or awarding rescissory damages; declaratory relief; and plaintiff’s costs, including attorneys’ fees and experts’ fees. Exar and its directors have waived service of summons and entered appearances in the action. Additional similar lawsuits may be filed in the future.

Exar and MaxLinear intend to vigorously defend against this and any subsequently filed similar actions.
